

Takunda Gumbu

Associate, Manokore Attorneys

takunda.gumbu@ma.dlapiperafrica.com

Harare

T +263 242 746 787

T +263 242 746 749

M +263 774 544 606

 LinkedIn profile

Takunda Gumbu is part of the projects, infrastructure, and alternative dispute resolution practice groups. Takunda advises clients on project development, project financing, and commercial dispute resolution in various sectors, including power, land development, and banking and finance. He is available as counsel or arbitrator in arbitration proceedings. Prior to joining DLA Piper, Takunda worked as an in-house counsel for a leading conglomerate in Namibia, where he handled complex contractual and regulatory matters in renewable energy, real estate and hospitality. Takunda is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and has authored several publications on international commercial arbitration, investment arbitration, construction, and energy.

Related services

Finance and Projects

Litigation, Arbitration and Regulatory

Related sectors

Infrastructure, Construction and Transport

Languages spoken

French, Shona, English

Experience

Takunda has experience in matters involving commercial law, project finance, corporate finance, real estate, renewable energy, infrastructure, arbitration, and private mergers & acquisitions.

Credentials

LLB, LLM (Candidate)

Member – Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

Member – Young ICCA

Insights

Basel III Endgame May Affect Renewable Energy Projects In Zimbabwe.

26 July 2024

Introduction When US President Joe Biden, announced the ending of the Zimbabwe sanctions program, a wave of euphoria quickly spread across the country. The lifting of sanctions provided renewable energy investors with access to the previously closed international capital markets. Many projects were struggling to reach financial close as funders were unwilling to risk inadvertently violating US sanctions by financing Zimbabwean projects. While sanctions opened up international markets, Basel III Endgame could spoil the party for the over 100 Independent Power Producers ("IPP"), who are licensed to generate electricity in the country but are failing to obtain financing.